2/3 of the regional projects contain distinctive elements of both horizontal and vertical partnerships.

Four General Findings in the 'Regional' Chapter

1. Going social – inclusion, cohesion and equity (solutions) at its best at regional level;
2. Intelligent ICT-enabled solutions and architectures, including the 'next' generation, with its multi-faceted benefits are a reality in the regions;
3. A critical mass ('economy of scale') for service improvement/delivery and for economically successful impulses to development is provided or found by regional bodies;
4. The regional players at the heart of any form of partnership working (horizontal and/or vertical), whilst assuring sustainability of the action.
